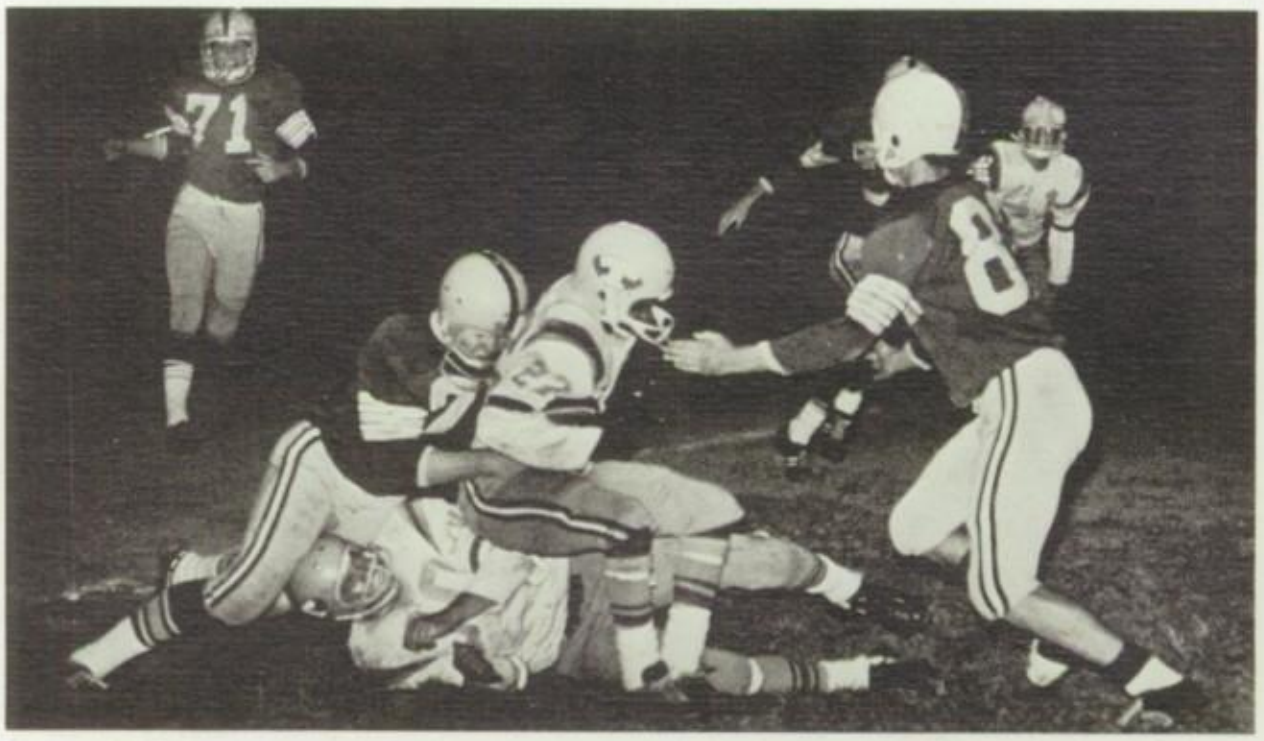
SPORTS

The 1969 football season was a disappointing one for the Bulldogs and their followers. It was, however, a rebuilding season from the start since there were only eight seniors out of fifteen returning lettermen on the squad. The Bulldogs lost their first three games before defeating Gibsonville 30-6 in their Homecoming game. Defending conference co-champion East Davidson struggled to collect a 14-8 win over Trinity in the Bulldogs' next encounter. The next two games were lost by the Bulldogs, including an 8-0 decision to conference rival Randleman.



Steve Gray crossed mid-field against Sumner players.

Bill Hayworth Named To All-Conference Team

Eighty-six points were scored by Trinity as they demolished Denton and Ledford. Sumner was the last game of the season for Trinity, and the Bulldogs almost pulled another one out before losing in the last six minutes 16-6. Winning or losing, the Bulldogs played hard, growing in body and spirit, helping to make dreams a reality.

Touchdown! Trinity!

Coaching Staff Worked Faithfully To Develop Strong Teams In 1969-70

Trinity's tough defense diagnosed Ledford's offense and held them for no yardage gained. This defense resulted in a convincing victory for the Bulldogs. Trinity's offense scored 34 points, enough for a victory.

Coaches Hiatt and Doby intensely studied the situation with East Davidson before making a decision.

David Wood gained yardage on this play.

Tri-Captains Were Leading Scorers

With seven returning lettermen, four of whom were seniors, the Bulldogs of 1969-70 were a team to be reckoned with. Led by five seniors, three of whom had been starters since they were sophomores, the Bulldogs were an experienced and well-balanced team, highlighted by youth. The boys made up for a lack of height by their quickness and aggressive defensive play. The Bulldogs were led by tri-captains Gary King, Brad Hurley, and Gary York.

Ledford Defeated For First Victory

The Bulldogs got off to a slow start, losing their first three games. With only two seconds remaining in the game, Brad Hurley hit a jump shot, and the Bulldogs won their first game of the season over Ledford, 55-53. The Bulldogs went on to win their next three games out of four to even their record, including an astonishing rout over defending conference champion Randleman. Coach Larry Wall's exciting-to-watch junior varsity was expected to make next year's varsity one of the most explosive teams in the conference.

Girls Lost Close Games In 1969-70

Led by All-Conference and All-Tournament Debra Hohn along with senior captain Glenda Marion, the 1969-70 Bulldogettes were once again in the thick of the conference race. With seven returning lettermen, only three of whom were seniors, the Bulldogettes with experience built for the future.

Junior—Led Team Strong And Experienced

Everyone wanted the ball.

Starting off hot, the Bulldogettes won their first three starts of the 1969-70 season. After losing to defending conference champion Ledford, the Bulldogettes went on another winning streak, winning their next four out of five games.

It's mine.

Glenda dribbled the ball as team led 25-12 in third period.

Susan Lambeth's pass to Janie Smith was not intercepted.

Cindy Aldridge and a jump ball.

No, you can't have it!

Trinity's Golf Program Enhanced

With six returning lettermen, all of whom were starters, the 1970 Trinity Senior High golf team improved their previous mark of 13-2. Both losses came at the hands of Randleman and resulted in a second-place finish for the Bulldogs. The team finished third in tournament play. After the regular season play was over, David Taylor, Ricky Melton, Gary Flowers, and Gary King represented the school well in the State Golf Tournament in Chapel Hill, North Carolina in which they finished fifth in the Championship Division.

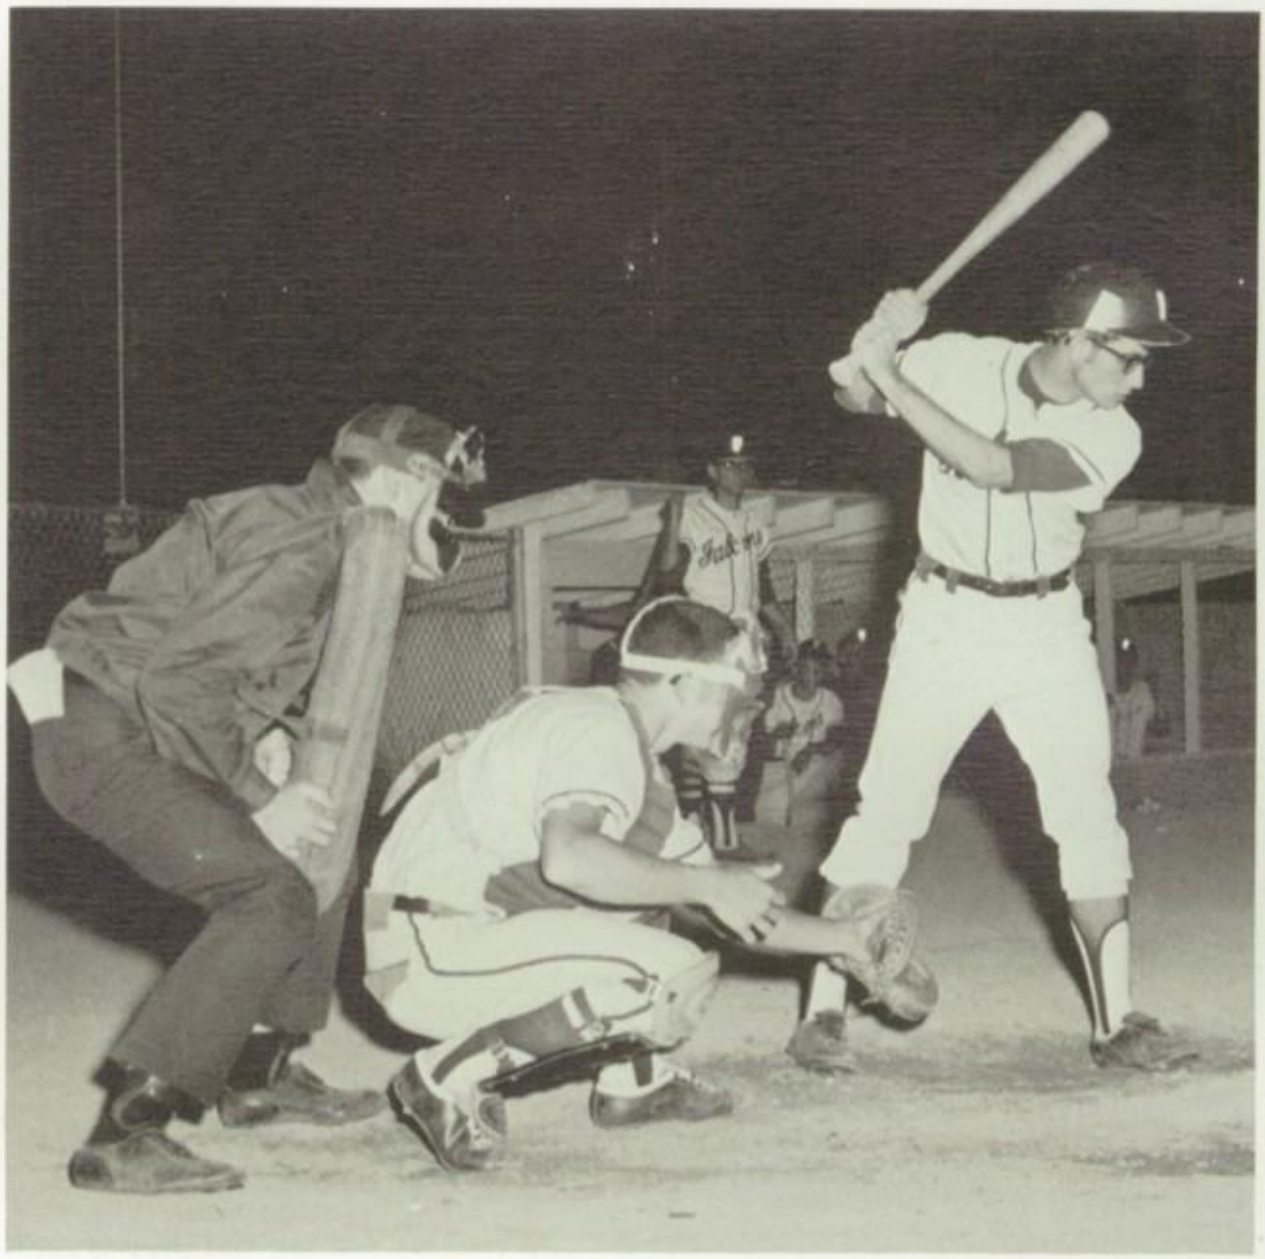
Coach Wall's Team And Talent

Returning for the 1970 baseball team were fifteen players, all of whom were lettermen. The total included only five seniors. This alone indicated that re-building the baseball program at Trinity Senior High School was in progress.



Stewart Roberts caught the third-strike pitch from Eddie Bouldin.

Coach Wall and his usual pre-game talk with players.

Rocky McElhannon placed fourth in the discuss competition in the conference track meet.

Track Team Had Winning Season

A growing sport at Trinity Senior High, track proved to be of interest to the spectators in 1969. Coach Hiatt's team consisted of Wayne Johnson, mile; William Reddick, 880; Arnold Steele, 440; Larry Council, 220; Ricky Foster, broad jump; Jody Welborn, Kenny Welborn, Wayne Johnson, high jump; Rocky McElhannon, Bill Hayworth, discuss and shot put; Larry Council, 100-yard dash; Steve McKenzie, Larry Council, Kenny Welborn, and Arnold Steele, 880 relay. The track team won three out of five regular season meets. Winners in the conference meet held in Greensboro were William Reddick, second in the 880, and Rocky McElhannon, fourth in the discuss throw.

DEDICATION

For His Unending Devotion We Dedicate

Amid the past and future lies the present. With the present comes the memory of many famous men. Their trodden paths leave behind an immense amount of influence. Betwixt two famous trodden paths, those of Lincoln and Washington, lies our own Mr. Coggins. His path is being changed and influenced daily by those before him. His qualities are as those of Lincoln and Washington. These qualities do include insight, forceful in his convictions, possession of iron will, a determined spirit, and an understanding love for all. As Washington had to do in his time, so does Mr. Coggins. He steadily changes and adjusts to the new times. As Lincoln had the beautiful quality of putting others before self, so does Mr. Coggins. It is easily seen that others' paths influence our own. Here, Mr. Coggins is influenced by the paths of two great men, and years from now we will be influenced by his uncompleted path of now.

Mr. Coggins, because of your unending concern and devotion to us, we dedicate the 1970 TRINHIAN to you.

Mr. J. Rayford Coggins, Principal.

Office Workers Aidied Mrs. Brady

Patient and understanding are the words which describe our secretary, Mrs. Hilda Brady. Running her job efficiently, she is a friend to all. She tended to the money matters of the school, worked with the blue sheets, and did several other tasks that go unnoticed. She offered her service to anyone who sought it.

Mrs. Hilda Brady.

Students assisted Mrs. Brady in her work by answering phone calls, delivering messages, typing, and attending to several of the usual duties of a secretary.

Guidance Office Assistant Work Was Varied

Miss Doris Lambeth

The Anchor Club repaired toys which were given to needy children at Christmas.

Anchor Club members helped in keeping a beautiful lawn.

Decorating the tree in the cafeteria was a project of the Anchor Club.

Student Directory Assembled By The FBLA Members

FBLA members assembled a student directory. Phyllis Gallimore was DECA's Sweetheart. The students were involved in several projects as well as being host to the District DECA Convention.

Randall Cranford was elected president of the Sixth District DECA.

Copy was typed for the student directory by FBLA members.

FHA Members Attended State Fair

FHA members had a busy year. During the year, a local fashion show was sponsored by the FHA, and the members modeled their own creations.

Ann Wilson and Phyllis Gallimore were winners in the state competition of the "Sew-It-With-Wool" contest.

Members of the FHA proudly displayed their trophy for first place in the homecoming float contest.

Some of the officers as they planned FHA projects.

Student Involvement Council Formed

In its first year as an organization, the Student Involvement Council was formed as a mediator for the students and teachers.

Members of the horticulture class beautified our campus.

Members of the Future Teachers of America made plans for National Education Week.

Members of the Student Involvement Council planned for better student relations.

Projects Entered In Science Fair

Many interesting experiments were performed by the members of the Science Club. Several students entered projects in the Science Fair. The students were responsible for keeping lab equipment in its proper place.

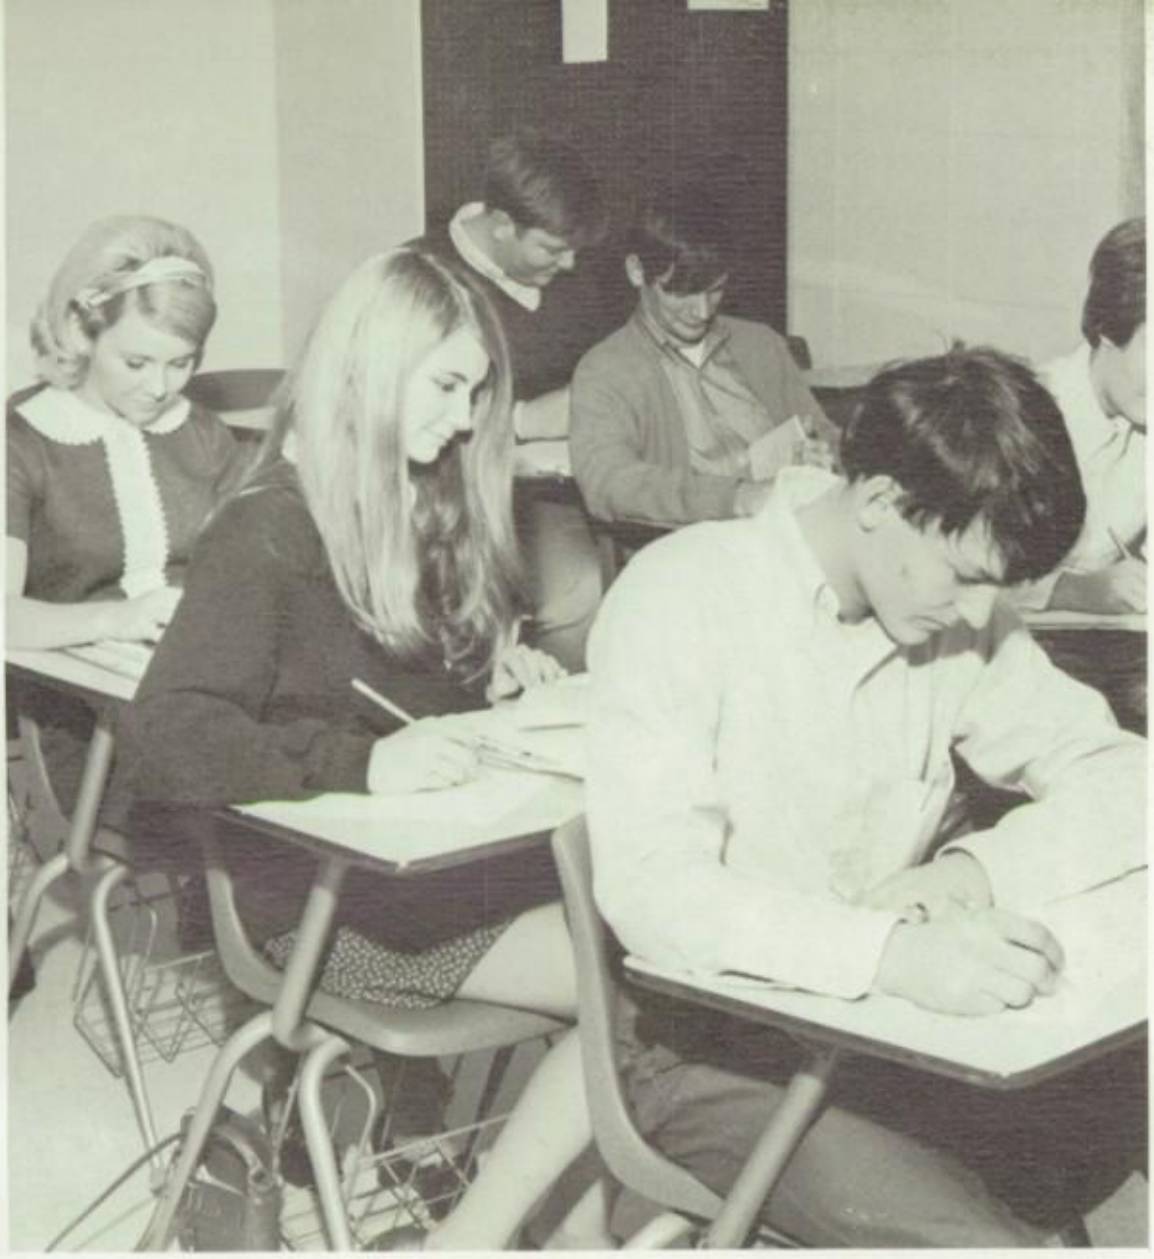
Members of the French Club.

Bus Drivers Had A Perfect Record

Members of the newly formed club, the Bus Driver's Club.

Members of the cheerleading squad.



Students Of The Humanities Studied The Great Writers

Members of Mrs. Brown's English III class.

Members of the Humanities attended several plays, saw art exhibits, and presented two one-act plays.

President Randy Hackaday and Student Council members.

Members of the Student Council.

Active Was The Student Council

Innumerable were the projects of the Student Council. Some of the projects were sponsoring dances to raise money for new trash cans for the campus, sponsoring Homecoming, selling parking stickers, sponsoring a sing-out, serving as parking patrol leaders, and heading Student Council Week.

Members of the Student Council.

This is why electric service bills were lower 30 years ago.

Then, Piedmont Carolinians used about one-tenth the electricity they do now as they enjoy over 160 appliances that contribute to carefree living. But today, for a home served by Duke Power, the average cost per kilowatt hour is about half what it was 30 years ago. That's why we say electricity is today's biggest value.

Gone forever–another year in the brief span of youth has slipped away–a year has ended. The foundation has been completed; high school life, from the building of freshmen to seniors, is so very soon left behind, and along with it, we leave a part of ourselves. The study, the pleasures of friendship, the excitement–all blur into memory, but the foundation remains, as strong as the pillars which support our buildings.

Appreciation in producing this yearbook goes to the annual staff, to their parents for their understanding and patience, to our principal, Mr. J. Rayford Coggins, and the faculty for their support and cooperation, and to our advertisers for their support. To Mr. A. Dillard Hiatt goes our appreciation for his advice and assistance. Mr. C. F. Boswell, photographer; Mrs. Jo Walker, art consultant; Mr. Harris Hudson, photographer, also contributed to our book.

We have attempted to portray in the 1970 TRINHIAN all the events and occurances which have been a part in laying the foundation for the future. The foundation has been laid, and now, we shall remember . . . moments of joy . . . being a part of, a person, a team, a school . . . Trinity Senior High School, 1970.

FOUNDATIONS

blocks . . . glass . . . bricks . . . and more . . . the students of TRINITY SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL . . . planning . . . dreaming . . . asking questions . . . seeking answers . . . competing . . . developing skills . . . leading . . . following . . . guiding . . . honoring . . . building to the final goal of knowledge . . .

P.S. Sorry temper - for all my tantrums but, you under- stand !!!!

forget English class or Journalism class - ugh! How did I ever get into that classes

Thanks ! Mrs Dodd

Mrs Johnson, she was the finest, one English teacher I have ever had !

Mrs. Johnson

I have enjoyed being in your classes of English III and Journalism. Lets not forget Study Hall either. I think you are the best teacher at Trinity. I hope the future is a bright one for you.

A friend always
Tony Hillis

P.S. Try not to get my sister in your English class next year.

Hey! Love Ya!

Mrs. Johnson,

I have really enjoyed myself in your Stud hall. The only thing wrong with it is that there are a couple of students that dominate the class and make it hard for a fine nice teacher to controll them with out getting a kick in the teeth

I have really enjoyed the times in this class and I don't think I shall ever forget. You are the sweetest, nicest and most like teacher at Trinity Senior High. I hope when you get pregnate you will name your child after some of us most behaved students like Tony Gillis, Lynn Sye or myself Marsha Daniel.

Stay as nice and as you are now.

Marsha

Thanks for your Understanding Daniel
